Articles of Incorporation of the Brick, Pipe and Tile Company Filed.

The articles of incorporation of the Logan Brick, Pipe and Tile company were filed with Clerk Fullmer. The directors It is alleged in the article in question that "Eckert, in his dying condition, was left in the office of Dr. Conroy for the ingit to shift for himself through all the weary and lonesome hours without company or a bed. Some medicine was placed by his aids on the floor. As the hours dragged on his pain became excruciating, and in his agony he monned aloud and the eche of his groans through the stream of the curried of the Utah Loan and Trust building attracted the attention of Patrolinea Turner and Eggliston, who went to the room to offer him assistance."

The Ogden bureau of The Herallo is adjoining the office of Dr. Conroy and from the personal knowledge of the writer these allegations are branded as faise. Dr. Jones, city physician, offered the hospitality of the city hospital, but the condition of the man was such that Dr. Conroy believed it was not the best thing to move him until friends who had been heard from arrived. The dector thereupon made a bed on the floor of his office.
